

KERATAN AKHBAR

AKHBAR	:	NEW STRAITS TIMES
TARIKH	:	20/12/2019	MUKA SURAT	: 10
JABATAN	:	JPS
KLASIFIKASI	:	PERHATIAN

100 youths clean flood victims' homes in Johor

KLUANG: About 100 youths from Gerakan Revolusi Orang-Orang Muda, Majlis Belia Daerah Kluang (MBDK), Pertubuhan Kluang Perihatin, Persatuan Ibu Tunggal Kluang and Kluang Sports, Recreation and Community Club (SRCC) took part in a gotong-royong to clean up the homes of residents affected by the recent floods here.

PKP deputy chairman Md Norhalim Md Amin said they were assisted by personnel from the Kluang and Rescue Department and Malaysian Volunteer Corps Department.

He said the response from the youth was encouraging and the activity had eased the burden faced by the flood victims.

"With many people involved, we managed to clean up more than 10 houses within a short time.

"This shows that Kluang youth are ready to volunteer, especially for charity work, such as helping flood victims," he said here yesterday.

Present were PITK patron Datuk Sharifah Azizah Syed Zain, MBDK president Abd Halim Mohd Dom and Kluang SRCC chairman Mohd Khairul Ishak.

Azhar Abd Manap, 68, who was earlier concerned over his flood-stricken house, was a picture of delight as the volunteers cleaned his home in less than 45 minutes.

He said the effects of the floods were so bad that he could not clean his home by himself.

"Fortunately, in less than 45 minutes, the clean-up work is done. Now, I am waiting for the furniture to dry before putting it back inside my home," he added.

Volunteers cleaning up a flood victim's home in Kluang yesterday. PIC BY ADNAN IBRAHIM