11 held for trespassing into Perak forest reserve

IPOH: Eleven people, including a woman, were detained for trespassing into the Amanjaya Forest Reserve in the Hulu Perak district on Monday. State Forestry director Datuk Mohamed Zin Yusop said they were detained about 1am after the department received information about a group of people who were said to be participating in a four-wheel-drive extreme driving activity in the forest reserve. "Our initial investigations revealed that they had entered the Amanjaya Forest Reserve and were heading to the Temenggor Forest Reserve for camping activities. All of them were found to have committed an offence by entering the forest reserve without permission from the Perak Forestry Department," he said in a statement here. Bernama
