5 elephants frighten family at Johor home

KLUANG: A family of seven in Kampung Contoh, Kahang, near here had an unexpected encounter when five elephants encroached on their home's compound for three hours about 1am yesterday. Masnah Misron, 68, said when her family saw the animals in front of their home, they hid inside a room and clung to each other out of fear. "The animals banged on the house's door. We thought it would fall apart and that they would enter and trample on us," Masnah recounted the incident to Kahang assemblyman R. Vidyantathan, who visited the family to provide post-flood relief aid yesterday. Johor Department of Wildlife and National Parks Department director Salman Saaban said he would send his staff to investigate the incident.
