Junaidi hopes to be renominated in GE14

BY DIYANA SAMSUDDIN

KUCHING: Minister of Natural Resources and Environment, Datuk Seri Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar believes that he is still capable of serving as the Member of Parliament for Santubong.

“I’m ready to continue as the people’s representative for Santubong if I’m renominated to contest in the upcoming general election.

“I believe I’m still strong and capable of giving my best as when I was first elected as the MP for Santubong in 2004,” he said at the closing ceremony of the Tilawah Al-Quran at Surau Darul Hijrah in Bandar Baru Semariang, near here yesterday.

According to him, those whom he personally met in parliament had expressed their faith in him to be renominated in the next election.

However, Junaidi was quick to add that the final decision is entirely in the hands of Sarawak BN Chairman Datuk Patinggi Abang Johari Tun Openg and National BN Chairman Datuk Seri

Najib Tun Razak.

“Even with 30 years of experience in politics, I will still pay my utmost respect to the decision of the BN leadership,” he said.

Meanwhile the Tilawah Al-Quran held from Nov 28 to Dec 2 was a platform for 53 adults and teenagers from Pantai Damai, Tupong, Satok and Demak Laut to compete their skills in reciting the Quran.

Also present was the Assistant Minister of Rural Electricity, Dr. Abdul Rahman Junaidi.
