Tapir found dead near Felda settlement in Johor

KOTA TINGGI: The carcass of a male tapir was found near Felda Bukit Wah here on Monday night. Johor Wildlife and National Parks Department (Perhilitan) director Salman Saaban said the tapir was believed to have died after it was hit by a vehicle. "The department received a call regarding the discovery of the animal in Jalan Bukit Aping-Kangkar Papan at 10.20pm last night (Monday night). A team from the Bandar Penawar Perhilitan office was dispatched to the scene and found the 300kg animal, on the side of the road. However, the vehicle that hit it was not found," Salman said in a statement. He said the team took the measurement of the animal and the carcass was taken to the Bandar Penawar office for disposal.
