Wildlife Dept gets tapir safely out of hole

KUALA KRAI: The Kelantan Wildlife Department rescued a 200kg male tapir after it fell into a hole at a smallholding at Kesedar Baru Chenulang on Friday night. Department director Ady Ermanty Haniff Mohamed Hanif said the department received a report on the incident at 10.30am. It deployed a team of rangers to the scene. "A villager told us about a tapir which fell into a hole at a smallholding. We managed to rescue the animal at 8.30pm. It did not sustain any injuries." Ady said the tapir would be released at the Pahang National Park. He added that the public could contact the department's hotline at 1-800-88-5151 and 019-3885046, or email to kelantan@wildlife.gov.my on matters related to wildlife.
